

NEWSLETTER JULY 2010

Hello to all our much valued members of JEA. 2010 is proving to be such an exciting and busy year so here is an update on forthcoming events we are arranging or supporting to underline in your diary.

JEA Minister's Fraternal Sept. 15th at Martyn Shea's home – St. Marks Vicarage. The subject is “The danger of devoted things” based on Joshua 7. We would really encourage all clergy to come along not just for the excellent teaching but also for the special fellowship we share.

JEA Minister's Fraternal Oct. 20th at Mike Taylor's home – St. Andrew's Vicarage. A subject we probably all need to be reminded of from time to time - “How to burn bright - not to burn out”

31st Oct. JEA United Evening service at St Andrew's Church and a Children's event (similar to last year's Star Party) also at St Andrew's Church Hall.

JEA Theological Study Group led by Dr David Prothero in early November will be entitled “The Relationship between law, gospel and evangelism“. More details later.

9th Dec Annual Open Air Carol Service – this year in Liberation Square

29th -30th Jan 2011 Visit of Rev. Lyndon and Celia Bowring, Executive Director of CARE (Christian Action, Research and Education). Lyndon will be speaking at our JEA AGM on the Sunday and both he & Celia at a Saturday morning seminar.

2011 is our Year of Evangelism. Starting in Mar - April 2011 (Lent) we are inviting all churches to join in a 6 week Training Programme which is based on the JIM (Jesus in Me) initiative which was so successful some years ago. It is being completely updated and we really want to encourage the whole Christian community to get involved.

May 2011 will be our Month of Mission when we are asking folk to put on events of various kinds to draw in unchurched friends, neighbours and family.

Sept 2011 we are aiming to hold an Inter Church Mission when we are hoping to welcome a guest speaker to Jersey.

March 18th, 19th, and 20th 2011 New Wine will take place with a few exciting changes.

June 12th, Pentecost Sunday 2011 will be our Global Day of Prayer.

So you can see there are many exciting opportunities for us. Details of each event will be sent out nearer the dates and we do encourage you to support us.

We have an addition to our planning group - David Edwards representing Freedom Church has joined us and will undoubtedly be a very valued member of the team.

All of us join in wishing you every blessing.
